PROPERTY OF FRANCIS KELLEY (One of the Cottages)

2 story, steeply pitched, gabled, asphalt tile roof. Front facade has 3 bays, entrance in center bay which projects from main block. Heavy eave overhang. The door is not original. Has sidelights on right only, with plain glass transom above door. The roof line of the cross gable and roof line of entrance gable are parallel. Above center bay is essentially a gabled dormer with stick style vergeboard having a pendant at bottom. Small vergeboards in gabled ends. There are pentals (shutter hinges) on many of the windows. A chimney with corbels in center of gable.

Rear block has  $1\frac{1}{2}$  story gabled addition; 1 bay wide with inside chimney at gabled end. 2 over 2 windows. There is a 1 story rear addition that appears to have been an open porch with shed roof.

Brick foundation.

Arched windows over center bay are covered with aluminum siding.

NOTE: FROM BETWEEN THE NANTICOKE AND THE CHOPTANK

"Miss Maggie's Cottages" East New Market, 1884, Private.

These two houses standing next to each other north of the firehouse were built in 1884 as tenant houses in the English cottage style. They are remarkable for being so similar in floor plan and appearance, suggesting a builder's catalogue as their source.
